Scoring system

91.13 Each judge of a boxing contest under this Part that is being judged must score the contest and determine the winner through the use of the following system:

- (a) the better contestant of a round receives 10 points and the opponent proportionately less;
- (b) if the round is even, each contestant receives 10 points;
- (c) no fraction of points may be given;
- (d) points for each round must be awarded immediately after the end of the period of boxing in the round.

Deduction of points

91.14(1) If a contestant fouls his or her opponent during a boxing contest under this Part, the referee may penalize the contestant by deducting points from his or her score, whether or not the foul was intentional.

91.14(2) The referee may determine the number of points to be deducted in each instance and must base the determination on the severity of the foul and its effect upon the opponent.

Points deducted for a foul

91.15(1) When the referee determines that it is necessary to deduct a point or points because of a foul, the referee must warn the offender of the penalty to be assessed.

91.15(2) The referee must, as soon as is practical after the foul, notify the judges and both contestants of the number of points, if any, to be deducted from the score of the offender.

91.15(3) Any point or points to be deducted for any foul must be deducted in the round in which the foul occurred and may not be deducted from the score of any subsequent round.

Announcing decision

91.16(1) After the end of the boxing contest under this Part, the ring announcer must pick up the scores of the judges from the commission's desk.

91.16(2) The majority opinion of the judges is conclusive and, if there is no majority, the decision is a draw.

91.16(3) When the commission's official has checked the scores, the official must inform the ring announcer of the decision and the announcer must inform the audience of the decision over the speaker system.

Results of a boxing contest

91.17 A boxing contest under this Part may end under the following results:

- (a) submission by
  - (i) physical tap out, or
  - (ii) verbal tap out;
- (b) technical knockout by the referee stopping the contest;

- (s) holding the shorts or gloves of an opponent;
- (t) engaging in any unsportsmanlike or dangerous conduct;
- (u) holding the ropes or the fence;
- (v) timidity, including, avoiding contact with an opponent, intentionally or consistently dropping the mouthpiece or faking an injury;
- (w) throwing in the towel during competition;
- (x) striking with an elbow to the head.

Accidental foul — contest does not continue

91.21 If the referee determines that a contest may not continue because of an injury suffered as the result of an accidental foul, the contest must be declared a no contest if the foul occurs during

- (a) the first two rounds of a contest that is scheduled for three rounds or less;
or
- (b) the first three rounds of a contest that is scheduled for more than three rounds.

Ring control

91.22 The following rules apply to ring control:

- (a) the ropes must not interfere with ground fighting;
- (b) the referee must untangle any contestants tangled in the ropes or the ring and in the referee's discretion, restart the fight.

Ground control

91.23 The following rules apply to ground control:

- (a) at the referee's discretion, a contest that is stalled on the ground shall result in a standing restart;
- (b) contestants must be protected from falling out of the ring;
- (c) in the referee's discretion, if a fight on the ground is too close to the edge of the ring, the referee must restart the contest in the centre of the ring, in the same position.

Determining outcome when contest stopped

91.24(1) If an accidental foul renders an contestant unable to continue the contest after

- (a) the completed second round of a contest that is scheduled for three rounds or less; or
- (b) the completed third round of a contest that is scheduled for more than three rounds;

the outcome must be determined by scoring the completed rounds and the round during which the referee stops the contest.

91.24(2) If

- (a) an injury inflicted by an accidental foul in the boxing contest later becomes aggravated by fair blows; and
- (b) the referee orders the contest stopped because of the injury;

the outcome must be determined by scoring the completed rounds and the round during which the referee stops the contest.
