INSTRUCTIONS

ONLY complete YOUR portion of the Comparative Family Property Statement.

DO NOT complete the portion of the form that is to be completed by the other party or make any changes to the portion of the form that has been completed by the other party.

Tips for completing the form:

If you are the petitioner list your valuation of your assets and debts and your valuation of the respondent's assets and debts in the appropriate column.

If you are the respondent list your valuation of your assets and debts and your valuation of the petitioner's assets and debts in the appropriate column.

In the "Comments" column:

- If you are the first party to complete the form the only information you may put in the "Comments" column is:
 1. Which assets and debts are non-shareable and why; and
 2. Identify the documents to support your valuation of any of the assets and debts.
- If you are the second party to complete the form you may put the following information in the "Comments" column:
 1. Which assets and debts are non-shareable and why;
 2. Identify the documents to support your valuation of any of the assets and debts; and
 3. Your explanation for the difference between you and the other party on the values of any of the assets and debts.

If you are the first party who completes the form, after you complete it you must serve the form on the other party.

If you are served with a comparative family property statement you must complete your portion of the comparative family property statement, file it in the court office and serve it on the other party within 14 days after being served.
