Form 1

PROOF OF AGE

The Teachers' Pensions Act

This Declaration is required only if a certified copy of a birth certificate, or of a certificate of baptism or citizenship that shows the date of birth, of the individual whose proof of age is required cannot be obtained.

This Declaration should be completed by a parent of the individual or, if no parent can make the declaration, by an older brother or sister of the individual. The parent, or older brother or sister, must complete paragraphs (1) and (2) and strike out paragraph (3).

If no parent or older brother or sister can make the Declaration, it may be made by another person who is able to declare the facts in paragraphs (1) and (3). Paragraph (3) requires the existence of a family record that contains an entry of the date of birth in the handwriting of one of the parents made near the date of birth and requires the person to recognize the handwriting.
