
THE WORKERS COMPENSATION ACT
(C.C.S.M. c. W200)

Group Life Insurance Regulation

Regulation 12/94
Registered January 14, 1994

Definitions

1 In this regulation,

"Act" means The Workers Compensation Act;

"benefit" means the amount of life insurance payable on the death of an eligible worker;

"eligible worker" means a worker who receives wage loss benefits under the Act for more than a total of 24 months, and who

(a) is receiving, on the day of the worker's death, wage loss benefits equal to 80% of his or her loss of earning capacity, or

(b) dies within 90 days after the last day on which the worker receives wage loss benefits equal to 80% of his or her loss of earning capacity;

"group life insurance plan" means the group life insurance plan established under this regulation.

Group life insurance plan established

2 Pursuant to subsection 43(5) of the Act, a group life insurance plan is hereby established for eligible workers.

Benefit amount

3(1) The benefit payable on the death of an eligible worker is as follows:

(a) where the worker is survived by a dependent, the minimum lump sum referred to in subsection 29(2) of the Act in the year the worker dies; or

(b) where the worker is not survived by a dependent, the lump sum referred to in subsection 28(2) of the Act in the year the worker dies.

Benefit is not reduced by amount of impairment award

3(2) Subsection 29(3) of the Act does not apply to the benefit payable under clause (1)(a).

Benefit is payable on death, regardless of cause

4 The benefit is payable upon the death of an eligible worker, however caused.

Benefit is payable to estate

5 A benefit payable under this regulation is payable to the estate of the deceased eligible worker on proof satisfactory to the board of his or her death.
