 - decision-making responsibility
 - A contact order under s. 16.5(1) of the Divorce Act (Canada)
 - A variation of a contact order under s. 17(1)(c) of the Divorce Act (Canada)
2. The grounds for the application are: (Specify the grounds to be argued, including a reference to any statutory provision or rule to be relied on.)
3. The following documentary evidence will be used at the hearing of the application: (List the affidavits or other documentary evidence to be relied on.)

(Where the notice of application is to be served outside Manitoba without a court order, state the facts and the specific provisions of Rule 17 relied on in support of such service.)

4. The particulars of all orders, processes and court proceedings affecting any party to this proceeding, including any of the following:
- (a) an order or proceeding in relation to parenting arrangements, child support, spousal support or property;
 - (b) a civil protection order or a proceeding in relation to such an order;
 - (c) a child protection order, proceeding, agreement or measure;
 - (d) an order, proceeding, undertaking or recognizance in relation to any matter of a criminal nature.

(give details of any such orders, processes, proceedings, etc. – e.g. nature of the matter, date, court, court file/incident number, status, etc.)

5. Certification of applicant:

I certify that I am aware of my duties and responsibilities under the Divorce Act (Canada), as follows:

- (a) If I am granted parenting time or decision-making responsibility or allocated contact:
 - (i) I will exercise it in a manner that is consistent with the best interests of the child.
 - (ii) Before changing my place of residence or that of the child I must give notice in the manner required by the Divorce Act (Canada) to anyone who has parenting time, decision-making responsibility or contact under a contact order respecting the child*.
- (b) If I am granted parenting time or decision-making responsibility:
 - (i) Before relocating myself or the child I must give notice at least 60 days before the expected date of the proposed relocation and in the form prescribed by the regulations under the Divorce Act (Canada), to any other person who has parenting time, decision-making responsibility or contact under a contact order respecting the child of my intention*;
- (c) I will, to the best of my ability, protect any child of the marriage from conflict arising from this proceeding;
- (d) I will, to the extent that is appropriate to do so, try to resolve this matter with the respondents through a family dispute resolution process;
- (e) I will provide all complete, accurate and up-to-date information that is required by the Divorce Act (Canada);
- (f) I will comply with any order made under the Divorce Act (Canada).

- * Any move — including a local move — is a change of residence.
 - A “relocation” is a move — either by a child or a person with parenting time or decision-making responsibility — that could have a significant impact on the child’s relationship with a person with or applying for parenting time or decision-making responsibility or a person who has contact under a contact order.
 - A person with parenting time or decision-making responsibility must give notice before any proposed move to any person with parenting time, decision-making responsibility or contact of a change of their residence or that of the child.
 - Notice of a relocation must be given at least 60 days in advance.
 - A person with contact who proposes any change of residence must give notice to any person with parenting time, decision-making responsibility or contact. If the proposed change of residence is likely to have a significant impact on the relationship with the child, the notice must be given at least 60 days in advance.
 - The specific details of the notice requirements are set out in the Divorce Act, Canada (s. 16.7 to 16.96) and the required notice forms and descriptions of how to give notice are set out in the Notice of Relocation Regulations under the Divorce Act, Canada.
